

Commemorating the 50th Anniversary of Nikita Khrushchev and Dwight Eisenhower's meeting in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, September 26, 1959

—Schedule—

Friday, September 25, 2009

4:00-6:00 PM: Registration in the College Union Building lobby. Open House at the Eisenhower Institute office, 157 North Washington Street

8:00 PM: Opening Lecture: Khrushchev and Eisenhower, College Union Building room 260. William Taubman, Professor of Political Science at Amherst College and author of the Pulitzer Prize winning biography Khrushchev: The Man and His Era. Taubman will sign copies of his book following the lecture.

Saturday, September 26, 2009

9:00 AM: The Cold War, Khrushchev & Eisenhower, College Union Building room 260.

A panel discussion featuring Richard Immerman of Temple University, Irwin Gellman, biographer of Richard M. Nixon, and Timothy Naftali, Director of the Nixon Library, moderated by Daniel Holt, former Director of the Eisenhower Presidential Library.

11:30 AM: Recognition of members of the Eisenhower Administration, College Union Building room 260.

1:30 PM: Russian-American Relations: Looking Forward, College Union Building room 260.

A panel discussion featuring Jack Matlock, former US Ambassador to the USSR, James F. Collins, former US Ambassador to Russia, and Roald Sagdeev, Distinguished Professor of Physics at the University of Maryland, moderated by Louis Galambos, co-editor of the Eisenhower Papers.

3:30 PM: Buses depart from the college campus for tours of the Eisenhower Farm.

8:00 PM: A Conversation with Susan Eisenhower and Sergei Khrushchev at the Majestic Theater, moderated by Daun van Ee, co-editor of the Eisenhower Papers. Following this program Sergei Khrushchev, Susan Eisenhower, Jack Matlock, and Richard Immerman will be available to sign books in the Majestic's foyer.

—Registration—

A $25.00 per person registration fee is required to attend the symposium. This amount includes a tour of the Eisenhower Farm. Registration is free for all students. Please return this section of the form, along with a check made payable to Gettysburg College to:
The Eisenhower Institute; Box 2988; 300 N. Washington St.; Gettysburg, PA 17325

Name _____ Phone number and/or email _____

Address _____

Number attending _____ Amount enclosed _____

Check here if you plan to tour the Eisenhower Farm on Saturday afternoon